

Application for administrative access to application or tenancy file

Administrative Access enables tenants and ex-tenants of the Department of Housing and Public Works to gain access to specified parts of their tenancy file. This includes standard forms and letters. On request photocopies can be provided. Reprints of photographs cannot be provided, although they can be photocopied.

Once your application has been approved you will be contacted by a member of the Housing Service Centre staff to arrange a mutually convenient time to view the requested documents. You will need to provide at least one primary form of identification before viewing the documents.

Documents that cannot be viewed under the Administrative Access arrangement (such as documents referring to third parties) requires an application through legislation (Right to Information and/or Information Privacy Acts). All requests through legislation must be either lodged online via the Right to Information website www.rti.qld.gov.au, or on an application form.
