Apply now for the Dignity First Fund 2019

What is the Dignity First Fund?

The Queensland Government’s Dignity First Fund was established in 2016 to assist Queenslanders experiencing homelessness to live with dignity.

The Dignity First Fund supports the Queensland Housing Strategy 2017-2027 by funding person-centered, community-managed, grass-root projects that make a big difference in the day-to-day lives of people doing it tough.

How much funding is available and who is eligible?

A total of $2.5 million funding is available from 21 June 2019 with a limit of $150,000 (GST exclusive) per application.

This funding round is open to organisations or individuals with an active ABN that are delivering the funded service in Queensland.

What will be funded?

This round seeks proposals that provide sustainable improvements to a person’s situation to prevent a return to homelessness and offer dignity that lasts. Preference will be given to place-based projects that address unmet need and target services for:

- Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples
- children and young people
- people experiencing repeat homelessness
- people exiting care into homelessness
- older people
- women and children affected by family and domestic violence.

Applications close 16 August 2019

Please note: Applicants must have an active ABN and deliver the funded service in Queensland.
