

Partnering for Impact

To reduce homelessness in Queensland

July 2019

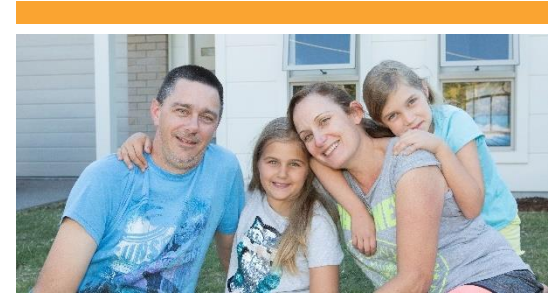

Queensland
Government

Queensland Housing Strategy Our Commitment and Values

Building a better housing future for all Queenslanders.

Every Queenslander should have access to a safe, secure and affordable home that meets their needs and supports them to participate in the social and economic life of a vibrant and prosperous state.

Partnering for Impact

- In March 2018, the Minister of Housing and Public Works launched Partnering for Impact to reduce homelessness in Queensland (Partnering for Impact) complementing the Queensland Housing Strategy 2017 – 2027.
- Partnering for Impact:
 - demonstrates the Queensland Government's commitment to broaden our partnerships with the homelessness sector
 - outlines the intent to provide existing service providers and their workforces with the certainty and stability they need by locking in five year funding to deliver vital services to Queenslanders that are homeless, or at risk of homelessness, whilst driving innovation and transforming the homelessness sector

Key principles

- Partnerships – Networking, coordination, collaboration and cooperation.
- Person-Centred - Contemporary responses, person-centred service system and person-centred outcomes.
- Place Based - User-led design, integrated environments, evidence informed design.

The Queensland Homelessness Compact

A shared vision and agreed way of working together to reduce homelessness

Strengthening
the service system

Expanding our capabilities

Delivering person-centred
housing responses

The Queensland Homelessness Compact Workplan 2018 - 2020

- 14 Projects for state-wide impact including
 - Improving Homelessness Service Agreements
 - Homelessness investment logic and funding framework
 - Human Services Quality Framework (HSQF)
 - Future workforce
- Place based activities

Partnering Process

Partnering Process

- Relationships & Networks- Partnering for Impact emphasises the government commitment to working collaboratively with the sector to produce innovative and effective housing and homelessness responses.
- Exploration- New products and services will be trialled and evaluated.
- Co-design- We are implementing new initiatives and working groups in collaboration with other agencies, service providers, industries and communities.

Partnering Process (cont'd)

- Action - We are delivering on our commitment by providing person-centred and contemporary housing responses and expanding homelessness prevention through early intervention strategies.
- Reflection - Re-thinking pathways to homelessness allows us to address at-risk and emerging cohort needs. We will reflect on our current service delivery approaches to ensure that support is available to those who need it
- Transition - Fostering a more holistic and person centred approach, building on existing responses for innovation and improved housing outcomes.
